ABOUT JUNE JAMES

June James, professionally known as June, The Jenius, is a record producer from Houston, Texas, born on October 11, 1990. He gained recognition in 2016 after signing with Think It's A Game Entertainment and producing YFN Lucci's mixtape Wish Me Well 2, featuring the hit single "Key to the Streets." Following this, June produced Lucci's breakout track "Everyday We Lit," which peaked at number 33 on the Billboard Hot 100. Over the years, he has collaborated with prominent artists like Travis Scott, Drake, and Lil Baby, producing chart-topping tracks such as "Yosemite" on Astroworld and "When to Say When."

Raised in Houston, June studied at Texas Southern University, where his involvement with the Ocean of Soul band connected him to local artists and DJs. This led to the creation of LAD DJs in 2011 and The Hit Cartel music group in 2014. June's ability to fuse talent and innovation has made him a driving force in hip-hop, contributing to projects for T.I., Gucci Mane, and Young Dolph. His work continues to shape the industry with dynamic production and collaborations that define today's music scene.
